

William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund, Inc.

MJG Communications has partnered with the William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund, Inc. to provide the organization with public relations service on a pro bono basis.

MJG Communications selects one organization for the 12 months free services as part of the firm's community service program. To learn more about services MJG Communications offers and to register for the program visit www.mjgcommunications.com.

The objective of the William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund, Inc. is to partner with major institutions in the Mid-Atlantic area in order to provide an ongoing source of funds earmarked to support sickle cell awareness, education and research. They currently have a commitment to provide funding for the Nemours Alfred I DuPont Hospital for Children and are pursuing a similar relations with Johns Hopkins.

Their mission is to:

- To support sickle cell awareness and education aimed at the prevention of sickle cell disease
- To support efforts at early detection and research focused on effective treatment modalities
- To promote the discovery of a life-saving cure
- To bring hope to families affected by this devastating disease

MJG COMMUNICATIONS, a public relations and marketing firm dedicated to delivering comprehensive communications solutions to nonprofit organizations. Additional informatin can be obtained at www.mjgcommunications.com.